Crecial to The Times-Dispatch.)

Bristol, Va., June 25.—It is announced upon good authority that the liev. George R. Stuart, the notest acthodist evangelist, who was a co-worker of the late Sam Jones, has about decided to qu't the jecture platform and get back into regular ministerial harness as a Methodist pastor. His reasons for this course nave not been made known to his friends here, but it is stated as positive that he will apply to the Hotston conference as its annual ceting this fall for a regular appointment as pastor, and it is intimated that there is a chance of his being assigned to a church in either Knoxivities or Chartanooga. Teni.

Stuart is recognized as one of the most unique characters in the Method at Church, and his career on the licture platform has shown him to be second only to the late Sam Jones himself as a plain-spoken evangelist. June
